

Our town. . .

. . . a vital element of life

A place we can call our own, where learning is more than just textbooks.

where expressing one's ideas are essential

to happiness. . . .

Man can often turn his ideas into the common ugliness of life.

Yet amidst all ugliness lies. . .

the serenity of gentle beauty. . .

learning . . .

. . . succeeding living . . .

existing in . . .

200rs.

I do my thing, and you do your thing.
I am not in this world to live up to your expectation.
And you are not in this world to live up to mine.
You are you and I am I,
And if by chance we find each other, it's beautiful.

Hard work . . . Perfection . . . Patience . . . These are all the qualities which every yearbook staff must possess. The 1971 TIGER staff is no exception. Ideally working as one unified group, they must put out a 224 page publication under the pressure of strenuous deadlines. Unknown to most students are the many extra hours which are spent before and after school to make the yearbook one which everyone will enjoy.

The TIGER is for the students. Being a written and pictorial history of the school year, its aim is to try and show every aspect of school life—academic, athletic, and social.

The addition of color division pages, coupled with outstanding artwork, and an all-round great staff, have made the 1971 TIGER a yearbook which can be presented with pride to the students of Lewis and Clark High School.

Fall Semester Officers

Dave Stanton, president; Mike Flatt, vice-president; Carolyn Close, secretary; Jim Travis, treasurer; Tom Dodson, 5th executive

The Junior Class presented "We're Only In It For The Money." It was a combination of short skits which had a series from movies, all the way from the old soundless melodrama up to Frankie Avalon and his beach buddies. General chairman was Bonnie Dinnison, co-general was Claudia Backlund. Junior Class advisors are Mr. Richard Higel and Mrs. Thurley Pack.

Drama Presents . . .

"Sorry, Wrong Number"

"They're all so GREAT! It's such an outstanding and cooperative group to work with," said Mrs. Carswell, advisor of the 6th period Drama class.

This year LC was fortunate to witness the creative talent of the Drama students. They have proven this by presenting 14 one act plays such as "Our Town," "Jane Eyre," "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown" and "The Last of the Ghastley's" under the direction of Ross Moat, Fern Box, Jackie Garman, and Joni Potter.

Although Mrs. Carswell stated that it takes the patience of Job and the constitution of a horse to be an advisor, recognition should be given to everyone connected with Drama for their commendable work.

Lewis and Clark Ti-Girls

"The complex world of a Ti-Girl; a most fulfilling experience," said Lisa Veium, spring semester president. This was proven by marching in parades and supporting school activities which again dominated the life of a Ti-Girl.

Besides participating in four parades including the Lilac Parade and the Wenatchee Apple Blossom Parade, they have also served the community outside school in areas such as the March of Dimes and the Rehabilitation Center.

During the fall semester the Ti-Girls sold calendars, codebooks, snowmen, and Santa Clauses to earn money for the trip to Victoria and for future use.

With the approval from Miss Virginia Danke and Miss Sonja Roach, Ti-Girls introduced a new look for spring—an orange vest with a white blouse and a black skirt.

Keeping up spirit during games and pep cons is a full time job for the Ti-Girls, one of Lewis and Clark's largest organizations. Pride in school and spirit keeps the Ti-Girls a powerful "rooting" block.

Promoting spirit is their business. As Miss Berend said, "The Tigerettes are the official spirit committee." The girls have proven this fact from cheering at the sport events to painting pep signs for the halls.

This year many changes have taken place for the club under the direction of Miss Cora Berend and Miss Mary Martin. The club got a new name as well as a new look. They adopted the name Tigerettes replacing the old one, Pep Club. New uniforms of orange sweaters and black skirts were just another way that Tigerettes has brightened its outlook.

The Tigerettes introduced a new way for raising money at school with their sale of red and black licorice during the spring.

The mixer, "Color My World" was presented by the Tigerettes to honor the basketball players.

Key Club

Under the leadership of fall semester president Rick Betts and spring semester president Mark Guthrie, Key Club once again volunteered their services to the community.

The members sold apples at WSU football games at Albi Stadium, sold mistletoe, distributed State B basketball tournament signs, and helped with the Hutton School carnival.

Evergreen Junior Toastmasters

Highlighting the activities of the Evergreen Junior Toastmasters was their annual mock trial held at the Spokane County Courthouse. The trial is an imitation of a real one, with "real" false evidence and facts. There is a defense and prosecuting attorney, and the defendant is usually a teacher put on trial for "high misdemeanors."

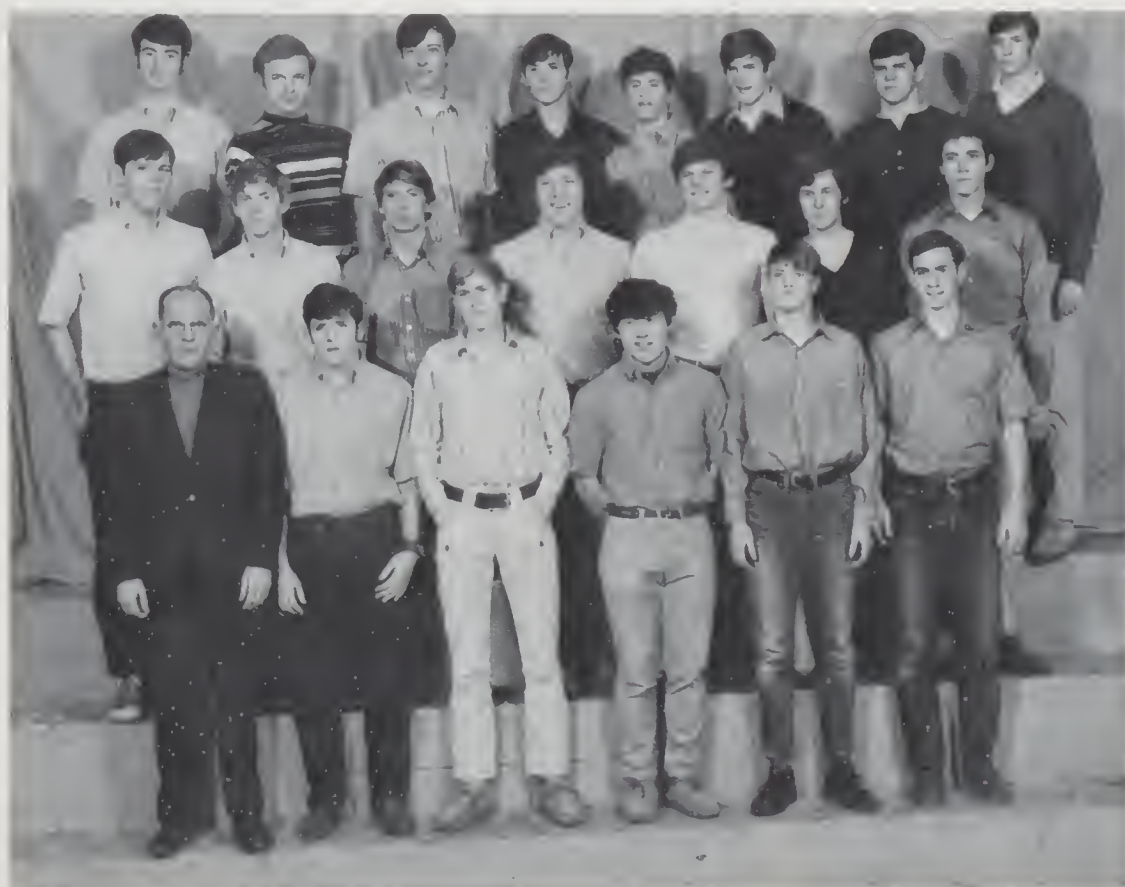

Other events of the club were the Liars Contest and their Christmas party.

Senate

Learning parliamentary procedures and better public speaking were the goals of Senate Club. In the spring a mock trial and picnic were held. Other projects included a Christmas party and a dance-line in the Boys' Fed. Con.

Those leading the club in the fall were Jon Hurst, president; Rob Watson, vice-president; Jamie Greene, secretary; Bill Long, treasurer; and Harry Case, sgt.-at-arms. Spring officers were Mike Leslie, president; Jamie Greene, vice-president; Dave Baker, secretary; Steve Sly, treasurer; and Mike Loft, sgt.-at-arms.

Adelante

As one of the five language clubs, Adelante is orientated around the Spanish culture and language. With a membership of approximately 25 people, this club was quite active. They held a meeting once a month in a member's home to plan such things as their annual Mexican dinner, picnics and money making projects.

Because each member had at least one semester of Spanish, their meetings sometimes had guests to speak about the Spanish language—its culture and music.

Presidents for the year were Gay Greer and Zoe Ann Lenhart.

Das Rheingold

"Our new goal is to be involved with humanity in a meaningful manner," said Mrs. Tollefson, advisor to Das Rheingold. As part of this project, Das Rheingold adopted a young Navaho Indian with money gained from club projects. Again as in years past the club had its Christmas caroling and spring picnic.

Classical Club

Classical Club is perhaps the only club in the school to have four presidents in one year. Because the organization is dedicated to Latin customs and traditions, all club offices are in their Latin form. There are two consuls (presidents) each semester.

"I think that the needy family drive really helped to bring the club together," said Kathy Robb, spring semester consul. The club also sponsored a Roman banquet, a dinner of Roman food and customs, which is given to commemorate the death of Caesar, a Christmas party, and a spring picnic.

Entre Nous

Not only being concerned with the French culture, Entre Nous is interested in the cultures of other countries. The club brings in speakers from a variety of countries, making it a truly international club.

One of its activities this year was an initiate dinner featuring authentic French food cooked by club members.

"The members of Entre Nous are a great bunch. They have a sense of humor and great enthusiasm, but they have a persistent hangup. For some mysterious reason they are always plotting to kidnap boys for the club. It makes no sense since we always have at least one or two in the organization," said Mr. Skinner, club advisor.

Fall semester officers were as follows: Debbie Starr, president; Mary Stone, vice-president; Marina Garras, treasurer; Sue Williams, secretary; and Michelle Wright and Bernard Gence, sergeant-at-arms. The spring semester officers were: Mary Stone, president; Marilyn Uno, vice-president; Zoe Ann Lenhart, treasurer; Tracy Richter, secretary; and Michelle Wright, sgt.-at-arms.

TOP ROW Sue Lundquist, Libby Kopczynski, Debbie Starr, Ruth Oberg, Sheryl Gusdorf, Stephanie White, K.C. Bagby.

Japanese

Japanese Club helps in teaching the cultural values and language of the Japanese people. They had meetings this year presenting discussions on Japan. Mrs. Matsumoto is Japanese Club advisor and helps by planning and participating in activities of the club.

"It's not just limited to Japanese students," stated Mrs. Matsumoto, adding, "We are most active."

Forum Club

Forum Club includes a group of young people interested in all facets of current events.

Women's Liberation and pornography were two of the interesting subjects discussed by the club. Each meeting, two people, presenting both pro and con sides of an issue, led the discussion.

"Forum Club, has given me the opportunity to discuss and hear many opinions on a variety of current world problems as well as meeting new friends I may never have had a chance to know otherwise," stated Mike Gerfen, club member.

Another member, Judy Kelley, said, "This is a good way of getting to know other people and their ideas. We had some Jesus people as guests one time and we discussed their way of life. Things like this help broaden your horizons."

Editors Liberalize Journal Format

Don

FALL EDITOR

With a staff of approximately 35 students each semester, the Lewis and Clark Journal offers the young journalist a first-hand experience in the field of journalism. Being on the Journal is more than just being in a class. With so much emphasis on vocational training for the youth of today, the high school student can gain a great deal of knowledge and "on the job training" through being on the Journal.

Student interests are of main concern to the members of the Journal. It was with these interests in mind that two new publications were formed. The first, etc., was formed to discuss the issues at greater length, and to allow both sides the opportunity to express their views. The un-Journal's main objective was to deal with the individual, in hopes that the individual would be able to associate himself with what was in print—the idea of establishing an identity with something which cannot be found in every day living.

The Journal editors for the year were Don Kiri-hara and Oliver Pierce. Cathy Hanna and John Wallingford guided etc. Instrumental in forming the un-Journal, as well as being its first editor, was Marlene Niemeier.

The new format of the Journal is due to its editors—Don Kiri-hara and Oliver Pierce. Not only have they made the Journal relevant, they have turned the paper into something that everyone can read and enjoy. A new layout and new ideas have made the Lewis and Clark Journal a newspaper true to the highest journalistic ideals.

Debate Has First Class Year

Resolved: That after taking only thirteenth place last year, Lewis and Clark's debate team was in contention for first place during the entire 1970-1971 season. This was mainly true this year due to the fact that the team lost only one senior last year and returned with six experienced debaters.

The topic this year dealt with our ecology problem of the regulation of water and air pollution. During the October through March season, the team participated in tournaments at the University of Idaho, Richland, Gonzaga, and Washington State. At the University Invitational Tournament in October, John Burroughs and Greg Takisaki won first place in their division.

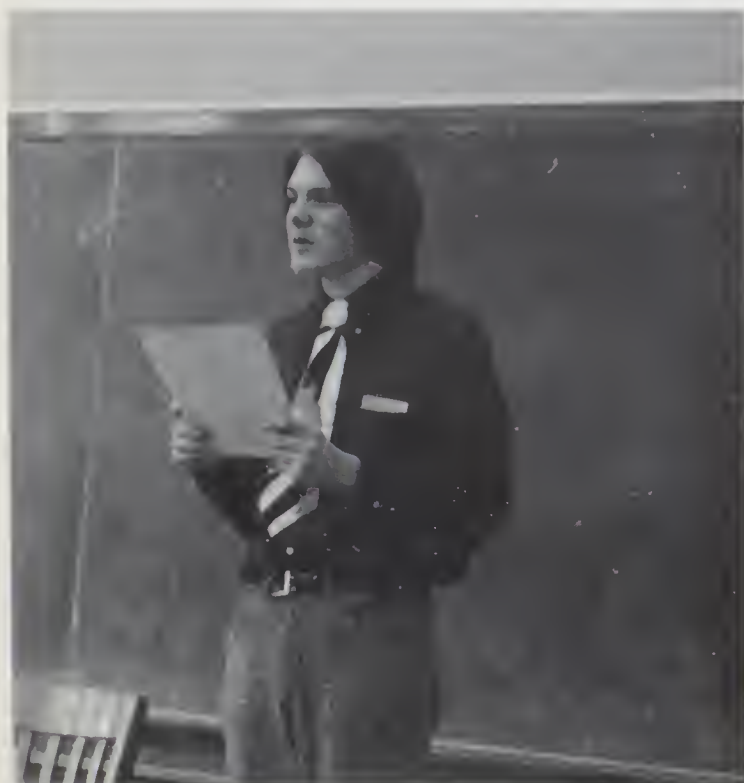

The teams have been awarded numerous first speaker place prizes, particularly Carol Patterson, Fred Parady, and Greg Takisaki.

This year the varsity team members were John Burroughs, Rick Betts, Kathy Bowen, Carol Patterson, Dave Stanton, and Greg Takisaki. The junior varsity consisted of Bill Graham, Fred Parady, Dave Nelson, and Scott Smith.

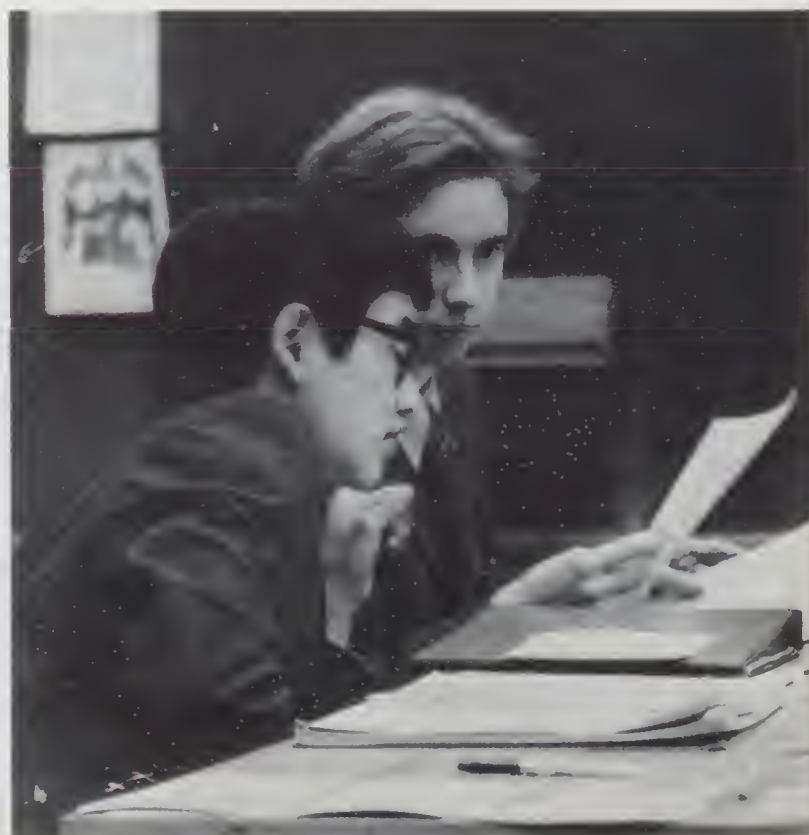

"We appreciated support given us by the student body and are looking forward to another good year during the 1971-1972 season," said Mrs. Keigley.

Sunshine Girls

"Sunshine and Hi Fives are sincerely interested in making Lewis and Clark a friendly school," said Mrs. Rossing advisor for both groups. In September along with the Girls' Federation, they sponsored the big little sister party, when they welcomed the freshman girls to L.C. Introducing them to the counselors and to life at LC through the use of humorous skits were the main objectives of the con at the party.

This spring the girls had words of inspiration on the bulletin board such as "A friend is someone who knows all about you, but likes you just the same".

Presented By Choral Groups

The choir is a tradition at Lewis and Clark giving LC a commendable group to be proud of. Mr. Gerald Hartley, choir director said that this year the choir presented four concerts including the traditional Christmas program given to the students and public. At Christmas the choir carried on its traditional caroling at Deconess Hospital and throughout the halls of LC. As their last performance, the choir ended the school year performing at the commencement exercises at the Coliseum.

Including thirteen young singers plus accompanist, Carol Herrman, the Tiger Tones sang at various organizations, convalescent homes and school functions throughout the year. Such groups as the President's Council, Assistant's Inc., Goodwill Auxillary, and the Lions Club enjoyed the singing of the group.

Girls' Glee Club directed by Mr. Gerald Hartley, performed in the fall concert and the Christmas concert. At Christmas they joined with the choir and Tiger Tones to perform a group of works for multiple choruses. In addition they performed in the March Choral Concert and the May Spring Concert.

Season With Concerts, Parades.

"The Tiger Band continues to maintain its traditions and excellence as evidenced by selection again by the First Choir of America as one of the outstanding high school bands in the nation," said Mr. Oliver Fuller, band director.

The band is a very important part of the school activity schedule. It appeared at each football game, participating in excellent half time shows and further promoting school spirit.

Performing in other student body events and in two formal concerts, the band did a great job.

It served the community this year in various parades and represented Lewis and Clark in the Wenatchee Apple Blossom Festival.

The Lewis and Clark string orchestra is one of the busier groups of the music department. It has performed in three formal concerts and ended up its year by performing in commencement activities at the Coliseum. In addition to this, the orchestra performed, with the choir, a major work written for that combination, "The Coronation Mass" by Mozart.

"The tradition of excellence by the orchestra has again been maintained by the group, the oldest music organization at L.C." stated Mr. Oliver Fuller, the director of the group.

Ski Trip Highlight of Outing Club's First Year

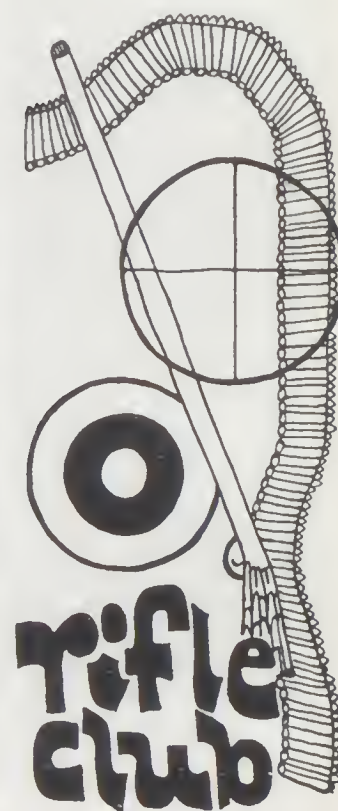

"I'm always doing these things and I thought some kids might want to go," said Mr. Tom Cline, Outing Club advisor. Outing Club, which was organized this year, was very successful. The members went bicycling, on a canoe trip, camping in the snow, and on a ski-trip. Weekend camp trips were held in the spring

B.S.A. Rapidly Improving

"As of now, BSA is doing quite well," said Mr. Clarence Wiggins, advisor. BSA sponsored its first annual dance this year, "Black and White Affair." Another project initiated by BSA was "Black Week," when members wore native dress.

Mr. Wiggins explained the club as a "majority for the minority." The club is rapidly improving and is open to anyone.

Archery

"Perfectionists are not what we are looking for, but for the members to enjoy themselves," said Mr. Orlando Fletcher, club advisor.

Under presidents Dan Simnioniw and Dale Keiser, they met twice a month to exhibit their free style shooting.

The annual picnic in May ended the year's activities such as the special holiday shoots on Thanksgiving and the interschool matches.

Other fall officers were Dave Self, vice-president; and Lance Sargent, treasurer. The spring officers were Tim Mason, vice-president; and Jim McNary, secretary.

Archery equipment is displayed by Mr. Fletcher, club advisor.

Chess

Skill and concentration were the key to success for the members of Chess Club, or better known the "Pawn Pushers."

To prepare themselves for competition they met twice a week under the supervision of Mr. Carl Milton and many times held interschool matches.

The members of "Pawn Pushers" participated in the six-week All-City Tournament under the leadership of Les Uyeji, president; Jim Tamura, vice-president; Ray Milton, treasurer; and Rosemary Vosen, secretary.

The fall officers were Jim Tamura, president; Jackie Garman, vice-president; and Sue Van Veen, treasurer.

Tri-Sci

Tri-Sci strikes ecology! This year's major spring project was a study on the environment surrounding Spokane. A research was made on water and air pollution.

Field trips were taken to the planetarium at EWSC and to Gardener Caves under the planning of Jim Tamura, president; Lee Boling, treasurer; Karen Jeffers, secretary; and Andy Frazier, sergeant-at-arms.

Science fair projects were done by some members on subjects such as laser beams and plasma physics, under the observation of Mr. Don Agost.

Tri-Sci participated in volleyball games with Japanese Club, Forum Club and Math Club.

Spring semester officers were Dave Soejima, president; Karen Lindahl, treasurer; Sharon Sullivan, secretary; and Rick Skadan, sergeant-at-arms.

Math Club

To further the understanding and promote more interest in a friendly atmosphere is the main objective of Math Club.

This was proven by a field trip to Washington Water Power and a guest speaker, Dr. Ed Olsen, who spoke on the subject of radio-carbon dating.

Coordinating the year's events under the direction of Mr. Eugene Sivertson were Les Uyeji and Mary White, fall and spring semester presidents.

Ti-Deca

"The ability to get along with other people is a prime requirement for success," stated Mrs. Flora Gibbs, Ti-Deca advisor.

Fund raising events for the club included selling paperback books, class rings and keys, calendars, and candy.

To help illustrate good business practices, Ti-Deca visited the National Cash Register Co., Safeway Credit Bureau, and I.B.M.

Officers for the year were for fall, Greg Reynolds, president; Candy Tester, vice-president; Barb Trutton, secretary; Dan Mahoney, treasurer; Harold Hensley, historian; and Clay Fallis, parliamentarian. Spring officers were Debbie Barnes, president; Cathy Hanna, vice-president; Gail Jablonski, secretary; Paul Peters, treasurer; Janie Nichols, historian; and Bruce Henjum, parliamentarian.

One of Ti-Deca's fund raising projects was selling books at lunch.

Junior Executives

Selling the transcription book "20,000 Words" was the main fund raising project by the Junior Executives.

Lead by Presidents Rob Watson and Marilyn Uno the club visited places of business associated with their club.

As a part of their club activities almost all of the members hold jobs after school.

Office Occupations

Lewis and Clark's newest club, Office Occupations, is a two credit vocational course for seniors. All members are expected to work in a paid office training job.

As part of the club's goals, every student must know business procedure. This requirement is to try and make a student acceptable for an office job.

Mrs. Flora Gibbs is the advisor.

Fine Arts

Another field of talent that is honored here at Lewis and Clark is that of art. The Fine Arts club is in fact proof in itself that talent can be found in other areas than just the playing of an instrument, the singing of a song, or the dramatizing of an aspect of life.

During the Christmas season, the club decorated the Christmas tree in the front hall and also made stars that were displayed in the office. In the spring the club held its annual art sale, in which members of the club actually priced and sold their own original works of art to other students. It was extremely successful and almost all of the artwork was sold. Also the members had their annual potluck picnic during the latter part of the school year.

Tryouts are held twice a year. A student wishing to join Fine Arts submits 2 original pieces of artwork in any medium, which are judged by the members. The only other requirement to join is that the person must have completed at least one semester of art.

Papyrus - L.C.'s Oldest Club

Having been in existence since 1912, Papyrus is the oldest club here at Lewis and Clark. With a membership of 25 students, this club was formed to allow its members to increase their writing abilities.

The club meets twice a month at which time two or three of the members read some of their original work and have it discussed and criticized. As one of its main functions during the year, Papyrus produced its annual literary publication, Stylus. Not realized by many of the students is the fact that Stylus has only been in existence for approximately 10 years. Before this time it had been published under a different name.

Papyrus also holds an annual Christmas party to which members of the past 3 years are invited

Talented In Various Fields

Orpheus

Talent is abundant at Lewis and Clark and seems to come in every shape and size. This can be seen by looking at the membership of LC's talent club, Orpheus. With a group of approximately 42 students, the skills range from drama to trumpet playing.

Extremely busy, as in the past years, the club performed at various hospitals, convalescent homes and schools. The members performed not only as a group but also on an individual basis. One of the main highlights of the club's activities was Christmas caroling in the downtown department stores.

On April 22 Orpheus members staged an all school talent con, along with the help of other LC students. "Tonight at Eight" was a production of numbers from various Broadway shows.

Dasidrian

This year Dasidrian once again strove to improve the skills of its various talented members and to increase friendship among girls attending different Spokane schools. Successful in its attempts, this city-wide all girls' talent club fulfilled a busy schedule containing banquets, teas, bake sales and numerous performances.

With a large membership of 82 girls, 24 of whom attended Lewis and Clark, the club met once a week at a downtown music store to discuss business and plan such things as a senior recital and its annual Frivolities show. This year Frivolities, which was a talent performance, was held here at LC on April 5 and 6. Like in the past years, the show was a great success and the club's many talents were exposed to the public.

During the winter months, Dasidrian members gave many performances, including a benefit one for the children at Lakeland Village.

The club holds two tryouts for those girls interested in joining—one each semester. After becoming a member of Dasidrian, a girl must take lessons in the field of talent she has tried out in. Also each member must perform once per semester in front of the club after one of its meetings.

The art of applying make-up is an important part of Thespians.

"Thanks to Thespians, the interest in drama among the LC students has more than tripled," said Rick Beeman, spring semester president. The club has had several projects this year centering around the members' main interest—acting. During the fall semester under the leadership of president Fern Box, the club went to a district for the elderly and put on a variety show. Later for LC they performed the Christmas Creation. During the spring the dramatists put on the all school play. Many members on their own competed in a speech contest at Gonzaga University. The club is advised by Mrs. Beverly Carswell and fall semester officers were: Debbie Root, vice-president; Lynette Thomas, secretary; and Debbie Barnes, treasurer. The spring officers were Lynette Thomas, vice-president; Sue Van Veen, secretary; and Jean Jameson, treasurer.

Most people think stage crew is a joke, and as Dana Bradfute, stage crew manager says, "They only know the mistakes we make." Members sometimes work a forty hour week, having to be at all school functions involving the auditorium. Plagued by poor equipment, the stage crew nevertheless has a high standard of pride and dedication for their work. Although few people realize it, their job is essential to the working of all cons put on here at LC.

Taping the convocations and the school's sports events were the projects of Audio-Visual. The sports films were used by the coaches and teams. Members were instructed in the use of L.C.'s television cameras and the video tape recorder. Working on a volunteer basis, the members spent a lot of their own time. Mrs. Omoto was the advisor.

F.T.A.

Future Teachers tried to promote interest in education and create an atmosphere of change and possible improvement of the American school system.

Some of the successful events sponsored by the group were a trip to Eastern and observing a kindergarten class. They also observed a sixth grade class through two-way-mirrored booths which allowed viewing a natural learning situation.

Several of the members are teacher's aides. Others are tutors for students at L.C.

Usherettes

Taking tickets and handing out programs at the cons were the primary functions of Usherettes this year.

In addition to their work at cons, Usherette members helped out at the P.T.A. Minstrel Show and at other school functions.

With Mr. Marshall as advisor, the officers were Marilyn Uno, fall president and Alexis Simchuk, fall vice-president. Spring leaders were Alexis Simchuk, president; Sally Parker, vice-president; and Holly Repsold, secretary.

Homemaking

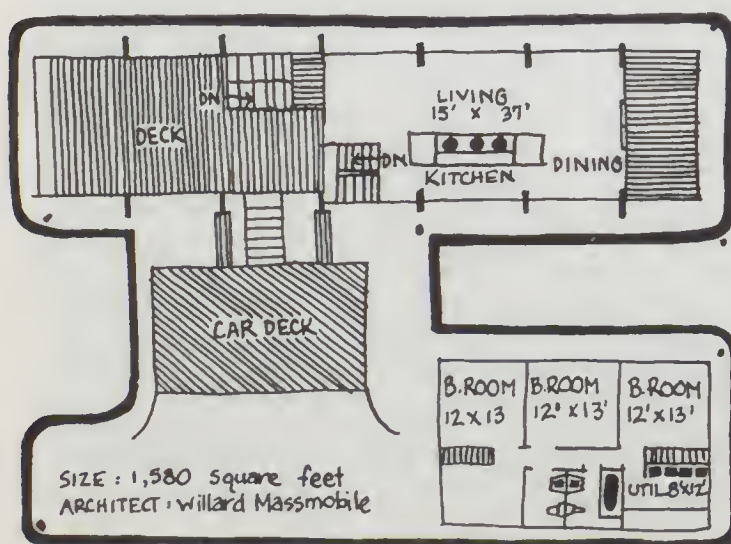

Handicraft was the main theme used by Homemaking Club this year. With a membership of only twelve girls, the club made many items during the year, each corresponding to a holiday. For Christmas one of the members made a three-foot stocking into which the other girls placed various items. The club then took the stocking to St. Margaret's Hall.

Homemaking Club had its annual cookbook sale in the fall to raise money. This money was used to support the many projects the members undertook. The two presidents of the club this year were Rebecca Boyington and Dayle Cosby.

Architectural

Under the direction of Mr. Leo Weed, Architectural Club members took field trips to some of the new buildings in town and also listened to various contractors. The presidents this year were Randy Gullickson and Gary Rhodes.

SPORTS

The new boy yell leaders are John Lindman, Wayne Boulac, and Doug Froese.

The 1971 Lewis and Clark cheerleaders, Debbie Carlson, Coco Craig, Mary Leslie, Betsy O'Kelly, Margie Nozaki, Terri Olds, and Margie Wangen, are an outstanding team of girls. They have pushed hard to revitalize the cheerleading system at Lewis and Clark. Not only have they helped to make spirit the best it has been in years but their constant smiles have brought pride and cheers from even the most silent factions of our school.

The cheerleaders have brought back the idea of boy yell leaders. Wayne Boulac, Doug Froese, and John Lindman were chosen as the ones to help the cheerleaders during all basketball games and wrestling matches.

"Under the direction of Miss Virginia Danke, the innovations and stimulation were the basis for terrific spirit," said Mr. C. William Anderson, principal. The addition of new uniforms added to the already "freshness" of the cheerleaders' routines, to the perfectionist quality of a dedicated advisor, and to the traditional pride that Lewis and Clark cheerleaders will always possess.

"We've Got The Spirit!"

Strong runner Al Harkey turns up field towards goal line.

With the best rushing attack in the City League, the 1970 Lewis and Clark Football team was only able to gain fifth place. Plagued by Quarterbacking problems and two straight one-point defeats, the Bengals posted two wins, six losses and a tie.

The Tiger offense featured the breakaway running of All-City Bob Denham who gained 770 yards and honorable mention Al Harkey who gained 508 yards. They were greatly aided by the offensive line. Both Denham and Harkey averaged over five yards a carry. The offensive line was anchored by All-City selections Mark Guthrie and Mike Loft and defensively by linemen Steve Sly and Bill Putney.

Five Tigers made All-City; three made honorable mention, and on the occasions when LC was able to put it all together there was no finer team in the league. Two examples were the seven-seven deadlock with champion Ferris, the only mar on the Saxon record, and they not only blanked North Central both times, but made an admirable showing at the Shrine Game.

All-City guard Steve Sly blocks for a point after a touchdown.

Mike Loft and Mark Guthrie display skill which earned them positions on the All-City Team.

Hammerslaughter of the year Bill Putney brings down a Ferris runner as LC's defensive line closes in.

Inspirational Award winner Art Osmundson prepares to complete another pass.

LC again smashes through the Indians' defensive line in a show of power and determination.

Bob Denham, an All-City halfback, shows his talent which earned him second place in city rushing statistics.

Cross Country Takes City

With great speed and determination the Lewis and Clark Cross Country team swept the league to take City and go on to State.

Shane Sorey, a junior, ran his second year on varsity and was the number one runner in Spokane. Rick Brooks, another junior, was second place with Chris Anstine running a close fourth in City standings.

The varsity squad was made up of ten thinclads—five seniors and five juniors. Next year there will be five returning lettermen which should give the Lewis and Clark Cross Country team another sensational year.

Coach Jim Speer checks over statistics at State meet.

Juniors Rick Brooks and Chris Anstine ran second and fourth respectively in the All-City Cross Country meet.

Junior Al Schurman runs Comstock course.

Senior Dave Vander Meer practices at Comstock.

Cross Country Captures Third at State

Lewis and Clark's Cross Country team captured the City League title, then went to place third in the State Meet at Evergreen High School in Seattle.

LC was represented by seven runners: Shane Sorey, Chris Anstine, Rick Brooks, Brad Johnson, Al Schurman, Dave Vander Meer, and Mike Rothermel.

The course was a grueling two and a half mile run over hilly, rough terrain. Shane Sorey led from the start of the race until they were about a quarter of a mile from the finish line where he stumbled and was instantly passed by six runners.

Chris Anstine came in eighth, and Rick Brooks was twelfth. LC placed five men in the top fifty out of a field of one hundred and seventy five runners.

This year brought Lewis and Clark its first B-Squad cheerleaders. Debbie Miller, Terri Haworth, Carol Summers, Bridget Yamada, and Mary Johnson led the cheers of the B-Squadders and supported their teams through the football, basketball, and wrestling seasons. "It was a great experience," said Mary Johnson, adding, "I hope this starts a new tradition at LC." Their advisor was Mrs. Guscott.

Lewis and Clark's Tigers finished third in the city high school basketball league, losing to Ferris in the season finale. In the battle for second the Tigers, for the second straight year entered the District 8 playoffs. Considered to be a strong contender for the city league title, LC was hit with injuries and inconsistency. Dave Baker, a first team All-City selection last year, suffered a knee injury early in the season and never recovered, missing the last five league games and the playoffs.

The team captains flip a coin at start of the match.

Lewis and Clark wrestlers under Coach Phil Pomeroy had a tough season this year, but finally managed to put it all together, coming in second in the Tri-District Wrestling Tournament. LC usually does well as individuals and poor as a team in the Tri-District Tourney. They did well in both categories and managed to place higher than they have ever before.

Lee Martinez, 108 class, and Bob West, 115 class, both placed first in the district tourney and went on to the State Tournament where Martinez was runner up. Also representing LC at district were: Pat Kagi, 101 class; Dan Elliott, third in the 122 class; Gary Laakso, third in the 129 class; Randy Maras, fourth in the 135 class; Dave Vander Meer, fourth in the 141 class; Tom Sather, fourth in the 148 class; Jeff Hansen, 169 class; and Mark Guthrie, third in the unlimited class.

In the All-City Tournament, Lewis and Clark managed to come up with two city champions, Lee Martinez and Dave Vander Meer. Dick Sather, Dan Elliott, Gary Laakso, and Mark Guthrie were all runners-up as LC placed third in the All-City Tournament.

Dave Vander Meer practices takedown technique.

Junior Gary Laakso proved to be an asset in his second year at varsity wrestling.

In his first year of wrestling, Jeff Hansen came through with some big wins.

Bob West, one of LC's two representatives at state, controls his opponent.

Dale Yamamoto uses breakdown during practice.

Lee Martinez, 108 pound weight class, was first in All-City Tournament, first in Tri-District Tournament, and second in the State Tournament.

Randy Maras, a fourth year varsity man, demonstrates back supple.

Senior Tom Sather had a good year in a strong weight class.

Mark Guthrie had many needed wins to help the team in his fourth year at Varsity.

Quick and experienced Dan Elliott puts together a pinning combination.

"I'll have a better, more experienced team next year," was Mrs. Guscott's optimistic outlook after the Girls' Cross Country team came in second in their city meet. Since most of the girls who participated in cross country were sophomores and juniors, a more capable team is expected to turn out next year for a winning season.

The overwhelming victory in the city volleyball meet plus a large turnout led Miss Danke, girls' intramural coach, to expect a good season in basketball and baseball.

Coach Jim Speer gives some pointers to the pole vaulters at a practice session.

This year's track team was aided with the return of seventeen lettermen. They were strong in running events but weak in hurdles. Mark Guthrie headed up shot putting and Mike Gerfen did well in the pole vault.

Eight returning junior lettermen should assure LC a good track team next year.

Two seniors are not pictured: Rob Watson and Harry Toliver. Also, Dave Baker was late turning out due to a basketball injury.

Lewis and Clark's tennis team had a successful season in both the spring and fall. Their success was largely due to returning lettermen John Burroughs, Rick Betts, and Ken Tatt. There were two outstanding freshmen that helped fill out the team, Bruce Kleaveland and Todd Richter. Clarke Indahl, senior, and Tracy Simpson, sophomore, added strength also.

Creates Interest

Cross your heart with stretch.

The new Sophomore, Junior and Senior English program at Lewis and Clark High School gives students a variety of choices both in materials to be read and in courses to be taken. Though the fall semester courses are structured in that one course is offered for each of grades ten through twelve, the choice of materials for the courses are broad.

The spring electives for everyone, except freshmen, number twenty-six nine weeks and three semester long journalism courses. The speech, composition, reading and literature subjects are varied enough that most students will find English to be to their liking. The subjects range from American Nobel Prize Winners to Vocabulary.

By their registration the students have the final voice in determining which classes will be taught. As the student body changes, the department expects that other electives will be added while some of the present offerings will be dropped.

Custodians

The cooks and custodians of Lewis and Clark rarely draw attention from the students yet they are imperative to the school's function. Without their help, LC would be the epitome of polluted grounds and the victim of inadequate meals.

The custodians' load has no doubt been eased with the school's campaign for cleanliness. White garbare cans, or "Silent Janitors," have been placed strategically around LC to curb the waste problem within the halls. With this kind of action, perhaps students will not take the hard-working custodians for granted.

Take her to Dodson's
... She'll be impressed. Not only by the store, but by the large selection of diamonds and mountings. One of our experts will show you the difference between diamonds and how their value is determined. You'll be relieved to discover how far your money will go!

LEARN TO BE A PROFICIENT SECRETARY,
BOOKKEEPER, OR STENOGRAPHER

Let Kelsey-Baird Secretarial School be your direct route to your career goals. Instruction provided by our well-trained teachers is of the highest quality. Our classes, being limited in size, allow you to receive individual instruction and assistance. New classes begin at frequent intervals. We operate our own Job Placement Service, and take pride in the achievement of the many graduates that we have placed in good jobs.
